

Classy Patterns

This packet contains guidelines to help you sell, make shop models, or teach classes from the long line of full-color Classy Patterns designed by Debbie Caffrey and Charlotte Angotti.

The following pages organize the current line of twenty-seven patterns into twelve sections. Each of the twelve sections includes a list of techniques that should be demonstrated and discussed if you are in a classroom or lecture/demo situation, a list of items that you can promote (sell!), and a project handout that you can give to your customers.

You can quickly view the entire twelve projects on the last two pages of this packet. The handouts are not meant to stand alone. They are supplements to the original pattern which must be purchased by each customer. Quilters will need to refer to the pattern for many of the project construction details.

At the top of every page is a notation stating the version number. The attached pages are version 01/08 (January 2008). You will always be able to check the website for the most current information. Make sure you download the latest version in order to acquire any edits or updates. As new patterns are released, they will be inserted into the appropriate month for their promotion.

Use the guidelines in this packet in the following ways:

As a twelve step, once a month or once a quarter, club or series of classes

Currently there are twenty-seven patterns in our line of full-color Classy Patterns. The patterns have been conveniently categorized into twelve groups, one group for each month. Each month will focus upon a technique and present all of the patterns in our line that relate to that technique. Month 1 begins with basic skills. Each month that follows will add a new skill or concept. By the end of the series, your group will become more confident, educated, and inspired quilters.

As a way to make store samples without making the entire quilt

Use the handouts provided to make store samples. Give the handout to customers who purchase the pattern from you, or enclose the handout and an original copy of the pattern in a kit for sale.

As a supplemental handout and class project

You may choose to focus on only a few of the projects within this guideline. Offer a class based upon a pattern (each student must purchase a pattern), and give the handout as part of the class. Teach the small project, or teach the entire quilt, providing the handout as additional information. Students love extra (free) handouts!

We have other options for clubs, classes, and in store promotions. Please do not hesitate to contact us at your convenience if you have any questions about them or our

Month 1

Project Handout

Barbara's Antique Table Runner

Suggested Fabric Promotion – Valentine's Day or black & white

Techniques

- Demonstrate "power cutting" strips (pages 8-16 in Power Cutting) and fat quarters (pages 23-24 in Power Cutting).
- The table runner project is a two fabric quilt, but the quilts in the pattern use fat quarters. Talk about changing patterns' fabric requirements (few fabrics or many) to create the quilt you want to make. Discuss the flexibility of sizes for fat quarter quilts using Barbara's Antique as an example – more fat quarters/larger quilt, fewer fat quarters/smaller quilt. Adjust the control fabrics (background, borders, etc.), when used, accordingly.
- Discuss accurate seam allowances (seam test on page 27 in Power Cutting).
- Discuss the "rainbow" effect (pages 27-28 in Power Cutting).
- Discuss other patterns using these skills. See the promotional items below.
- Discuss keeping borders and sashing (especially narrow sashing like in On the Straight & Narrow) straight, stable, and not wavy by cutting the strips along the lengthwise grain (parallel to selvages), and trimming them to fit instead of cutting border strips across the width of the fabric and just sewing them to the quilt, trimming the excess after they have been sewn to the quilt.

Barbara's Antique Table Runner

Size – 16" x 43"

Designed and written by Debbie Caffrey

This instruction sheet is to be used as a supplement to Debbie Caffrey's pattern. No part of any book or pattern published by Debbie's Creative Moments, Inc. may be reproduced by any means. This instruction sheet may be copied by quilt shops and quilting instructors and distributed to quilters who have purchased the class pattern Barbara's Antique. Supply List

Light	½ yard
Main Print & Backing	1½ yards
Binding	¾ yard

Making the Table Runner

Cutting

Light

Strips are cut across the width of the fabric, making them approximately 40" long with selvages on each of the short ends.

Cut one strip 6½" wide.

Use this strip to cut four 6½" squares.

Cut five strips 1½" wide.

Main Print & Backing

Cut the backing fabric in half lengthwise, parallel to the selvages to make two panels that are each approximately 20" x 54". Set one panel aside to be used for the back of the runner.

From the second panel of main print, cut the following pieces.

Cut six strips across the width of the fabric 2" wide x approximately 20".

Then, cut three strips 2½" wide x the length of the fabric (approximately 42"). Reserve these strips for the border.

Cut ten 3½" squares.

Piecing

Cut each of the 1½" wide strips of light fabric in half to make two pieces that are 1½" x approximately 20" from each. Yield: 10 strips

Use nine of the 1½" light strips, and the six 2" strips of main print to piece and press three A panels as shown in the pattern. The tenth light strip is excess and not needed to complete the project.

Crosscut the panels into sections that are 3½" wide. Cut a total of thirteen sections.

Arrange the crosscut sections and the squares of light and main print to complete the table runner as shown above. Sew the pieces into horizontal rows. Press all of the seam allowances away from the strip pieced sections. Sew the rows together. Press the seam allowances to one side.

Trim two border pieces to fit the length of the table runner and attach one to each side. Cut two borders to fit the width of the table runner from the third piece and attach them to the top and bottom.

Month 2

Project Handout

The Natural Pillow or Sham

Suggested Fabric Promotion – Batiks or plaid & homespun fabrics

Techniques

- Review strip-cutting, strip-piecing, accurate seam allowances, and borders, and demonstrate cross-cutting strip-pieced panels (pages 19-22 in Power Cutting).
- Demonstrate half-square triangles. Power Cutting, Too teaches many ways to make half-square triangles and tells the quilter how to choose which method is best for the project at hand (See the decision-making tables on pages 61 & 62.).
- Demonstrate completing the block and pillow or sham, including a discussion on various layout options for the units within the block.
- Talk about other related patterns. See the promotional items below.
- Discuss running sashing into borders for effect and the illusion of pieced borders by simply adding a rail fence block or other block to the ends of the rows (A Dash to the Finish).
- Discuss “dressing up” the traditional Churn Dash block, or any other traditional block, giving it an original, updated look, as in Girls Just Wanna Have Fun.
- Discuss using alternate blocks for settings (Material Girl and Girls Just Wanna Have Fun).
- Discuss the use of very narrow sashing as a design element (A Dash to the Finish and Little Churn Dash). They usually have much more impact than a typical 2" wide sashing.
TIP – For successful narrow sashing, cut the sashing strips with the long measurement on the lengthwise grain of the fabric, parallel to the selvages, instead of cutting many skinny strips, selvege to selvege. For example, if you are sashing a 9" block (9½" unfinished) with a narrow, 1" wide sashing, cut a 9½" wide strip selvege to selvege, and then, cut it into 1½" wide rectangles. Doing so will make the sashing strips much straighter in the finished project.

Fractured Fat Quarters Wall Quilt

Suggested Fabric Promotion – Large scale prints

Techniques

- Teach square within a square accuracy. Discuss how much of the dog ear extends beyond the square. Demonstrate point trimming as an option. See pages 24-26 in Power Cutting, Too. A handout is available on my website at <http://www.debbiescreativemoments.com/Tips/Piecing%20Precision%20for%20Square-Within-a-Square.pdf>.
- Discuss completing the design in Fractured Fat Quarters by using flying geese units and rectangles around the perimeter of the quilt and how it makes such a difference in the final quilt. Even though I suggest that you teach point trimming as an option for square within a square blocks, I prefer not to trim the points prior to making a flying geese unit. Not trimming the points of the triangles avoids the need to start right at the point of the fabrics. I trim the dog ears after they have been pieced.
- Demonstrate completion of the wall quilt from the handout. Point out that the wall quilt project is made with few fabrics, while the larger quilt is made with multiple fabrics. Again, discuss the flexibility of sizes for fat quarter quilts using Fractured Fat Quarters and The Journey Home as examples – more fat quarters/larger quilt, fewer fat quarters/smaller quilt. Adjust the control fabrics (background, borders, etc.) accordingly.
- Discuss other unique settings – medallion (A Cotton Pickin' Quilt), secondary pattern by alternating blocks (A Murder of Crows), and attaching squares to two sides of each block (The Journey Home).

Promotional Items

- Point trimmer tool – I prefer Judy Martin's Point Trimmer tool.

Techniques

- Review alignment of triangles and squares (last month).
- Demonstrate assembling the block by making diagonal rows.

Scraps to You Wall Quilt, Pillow, or Sham

Suggested Fabric Promotion – Americana / 4th of July

Techniques

- Demonstrate making the pieced half-square triangles (“scraps” triangles) with the Omnigrid 96L or other half-square triangle tool.
- Discuss the half-square and quarter-square triangle tools. Details about their design and use are in Power Cutting, Too (half-square triangles on pages 8-9, quarter-square triangles on pages 14-15, trapezoids for months 8 and 10 on pages 19-21 – a preview of what is to come, and a detailed explanation of their design and use on pages 21-23). I do not sell the smaller Omnigrid 96. The larger Omnigrid 96L does everything the small one does and more. Discuss other brands of half-square and quarter-square triangle tools, how they are the same and how they are different. Charlotte Angotti prefers the Nifty Notions tools, so her patterns are written for their use. Actual size templates are included in the patterns so that quilters can lay their triangle tool on them to verify the correct line to use.
- Show other settings and uses for the Bird in the Air blocks (book, Scraps to You, Too by Debbie Caffrey).
- Give options for finishing project as a quilt, pillow, or a sham.

Gretchen Block Pillow or Sham

Suggested Fabric Promotion – Autumn or Christmas

Techniques

- Demonstrate cutting trapezoids with the Omnigrid 96L and the Omnigrid 98L (pages 19-21 of Power Cutting, Too).
- Demonstrate point trimming (pages 25-26 of Power Cutting, Too and Lightning Quick pattern), and discuss when it is very important (Lightning Quick) and when it may be better to trim the dog ears after piecing (Scrappy & Sensational). Only through experience and experimentation will quilters completely understand how and when to trim the points of triangles prior to piecing or trim the dog ears after piecing.
- Demonstrate completing the Gretchen block and pillow or sham. Discuss how the quilt, Scrappy & Sensational is just a slight variation of the traditional Gretchen block.
- Discuss how floating the points of the star in Lightning Quick makes perfect points.

Cutting

Light

These strips are cut across the width of your fabric, making them approximately 40" long with selvages on each of the short ends.

Cut one strip 7¹/₄" wide.

Use this strip to cut one 7¹/₄" square.

Cut this square into quarter-square triangles.

Yield: 4 triangles

Use the leftovers of the 7¹/₄" strip to cut two 4¹/₄" squares.

Cut these squares into quarter-square triangles.

Yield: 8 triangles

Use the remainder of the 7¹/₄" strip from above to cut two strips 2" wide.

Use these strips to cut four trapezoids as directed in the pattern.

Cut two strips 3" wide x approximately 40".

Use these strips to cut two rectangles 3" x 18¹/₄" and two rectangles 3" x 13¹/₄".

Dark

Cut one strip 7¹/₄" wide x approximately 20".

Use this strip to cut one 7¹/₄" square.

Cut this square into quarter-square triangles.

Yield: 4 triangles

Use the leftovers of the 7¹/₄" strip to cut two 4¹/₄" squares.

Cut these squares into quarter-square triangles.

Yield: 8 triangles

Cut two strips 2" wide x approximately 20".

Use these strips to cut four trapezoids as directed in the pattern.

Piecing

Start at figure 3 in the pattern and piece four C and four D sections.

Sew the C and D sections together to make four sections like the one in figure 4.

Use four light and four dark quarter-square triangles (cut from the 4¹/₄" squares) to make four A units (figure 2). Press the seam allowances toward the dark. Attach these units to those from figure 4 to make four sections like the one shown in figure 5.

Here is where the Gretchen block construction differs from the quilt.

Sew a light triangle to the left side of the section from figure 5 and a dark triangle to the right side of that same section to make a section like the one shown directly at the right. Press the seam allowances toward the dark. Repeat for all four sections.

Sew the four sections from above together to complete the block. It is like making an hourglass unit.

Add the border rectangles.

Complete the pillow or sham as desired.

- Discuss “hills, Appalachians, & Rockies” and how to design with this technique. All of this information is in the book Delectably Simple Mountains book.
- Demonstrate how to make a leaf block.
- Discuss the “hip” technique used for the leaf block. More uses, projects, and information are in the book It's Hip to be Square by Debbie Caffrey.

Making the Table Runner

Cutting

Strips are cut across the width of your fabric, making them approximately 40" long with selvages on each of the short ends.

Light

Cut two strips 6½" wide.

Use these strips to cut a total of ten 6½" squares.

Dark

Cut two strips 6½" wide.

Use these strips to cut a total of ten 6½" squares.

Border & Backing

Remove the selvages from one edge of the border fabric.

Cut three 3½" wide panels along the length of the fabric, parallel to the edge where the selvaage was removed. These panels will be used for the border. Set aside the remainder of the fabric to be used for the back of the runner.

Now make five Delectable Mountains blocks like the one shown directly at the right. The only difference is that the light fabric is the "mountain" and the dark fabric is the "sky", so rotate the half-square triangles into those positions before cutting them into sections as instructed in figure 10 of the pattern. Sew the five mountain blocks that were just completed together to make a row. See below. Press the seam allowances to the right.

Sew the two rows together to complete the center of the table runner. Press the seam allowances to one side. Use the 3½" wide panels to add the border. Add side borders first, then, add borders to both ends.

Project Handout

Quilter's Quandary Wall Quilt

Suggested Fabric Promotion – Christmas or blue and white (winter)

Techniques

- Discuss the design decision to use not one background fabric in the star blocks (dark OR light), but two for more interest and design options.
- Discuss the design decision to make the same blocks in two sizes for interest.
- Discuss the organization of many pieces.
- Demonstrate the use of the point trimmer tool to help with the alignment of the triangles and squares. If you are using Judy Martin's point trimmer, the C trim is my recommendation for trimming all of the points prior to piecing the blocks.
- Demonstrate the completion of the blocks and quilt.
- Discuss the border of the larger quilt in pattern and the placement of the values in the background of the stars.
- Point out that the large block is asymmetrical and has more than one option for setting when making the larger quilt. The asymmetrical block contributes to the complicated look of the finished quilt.

Promotional Items

- Classy Pattern, Quilter's Quandary by Debbie Caffrey
- Book, Quilting Season by Debbie Caffrey – This book does not have anything to do with the construction techniques and design ideas presented this month. I list it as a promotional item because it has quilts made from Christmas fabrics, and it would sell well if you are promoting Christmas fabrics this month.

Project Handout

Back to School Wall Quilt

Suggested Fabric Promotion – Traditional red & white or blue & white (snowy)

Techniques

- Demonstrate cutting strips and parallelogram in $\frac{1}{16}$ " increments. Honestly, it isn't hard, and it is just as accurate as making templates! The key is accurate rulers. Discuss which rulers are best for precision work.
- Demonstrate cutting one quarter-square triangle from a 2½" wide strip, the same strip that is used for cutting the roof, using the 4" line on the Omnigrid 98L tool. This technique is more fabric conservative because only one triangle is needed for the project. Using the triangle tool is also good for when you are working with a directional fabric. See Power Cutting, Too (pages 14-15) by Debbie Caffrey for more details.
- Demonstrate the completion of the house block and quilt. Remember to "power cut" the strips and strip-pieced panels.
- Discuss the classic Double Nine Patch alternate block in the larger quilt, and suggest that quilters use it alternately with pieced or appliquéd blocks or plain squares when wanting to make a truly traditional quilt.

Making the Quilt

Cutting

Strips are cut across the width of the fabric, making them approximately 40" long with selvages on each of the short ends.

Light

Cut five strips 1 1/2" wide.

Reserve three strips for strip-piecing.

Use the remaining two strips to cut four 1 1/2" x 9 1/2" rectangles and eight 1 1/2" x 3 1/2" rectangles.

Use the remaining fabric to cut the following pieces:

one 2 7/8" square (Cut this square into half-square triangles. Yield: 2 triangles),

one 2" x 4" rectangle,

one 2" x 3 1/2" rectangle,

two 2" x 2 1/2" rectangles,

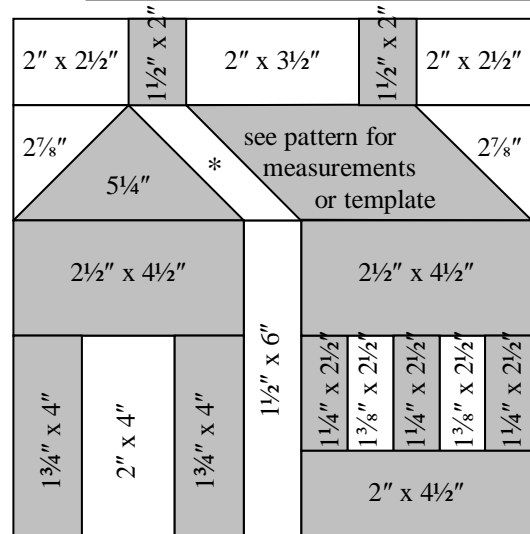

one 1 1/2" x 6" rectangle,

two 1 3/8" x 2 1/2" rectangles, and one 1 3/16" x 7" rectangle*.

Dark

Cut three strips 1 1/2" wide. Reserve these strips for strip-piecing.

Dark, continued

Remove the selvage from one edge of the remaining fabric.

Cut four lengthwise panels 3 1/2" wide x approximately 27" long, parallel to the edge where the selvage was removed. Reserve these panels for the borders.

Use the remaining fabric to cut the following pieces:

one roof (see pattern),

one quarter-square triangle (cut from 5 1/4" square),

two 2 1/2" x 4 1/2" rectangles,

one 2" x 4 1/2" rectangle,

two 1 3/4" x 4" rectangles,

two 1 1/2" x 2" rectangles,

four 1 1/2" squares, and three 1 1/4" x 2 1/2" rectangles.

Piecing

Follow the pattern instructions to make one Schoolhouse block. The top (chimney) row, the B section, and the C section are pieced using rectangles from above. Strip-piecing is not used for making only one block. Refer to the large block illustration above to identify which rectangles to use in each position.

Use the reserved 1 1/2" strips of light and dark, three of each, to make one D panel and one E panel.

Crosscut the panels into sections that are 1 1/2" wide. Cut 28 D's and 20 E's. Cut and use 1 1/2" squares to make additional D sections if you are short by one or two. Use the D and E sections to make four nine patch blocks for the corners and four checkerboard borders. Use the four 1 1/2" x 9 1/2" and eight 1 1/2" x 3 1/2" light rectangles, the four 1 1/2" squares of dark, the checkerboard borders, and the nine patch corners to complete the center of the quilt. Use the reserved 3 1/2" wide panels of dark to add the outer border.
